

Alleghany Highlands Public Schools may use video and audio recording in its public spaces, including vehicles, to help preserve safety and security.